

Client Information Release

MOPS members respect your right to privacy. All of your personal information will be kept confidential unless otherwise specified herein. MOPS would like to use some or all of this information and collected data during our investigation for possible inclusion on our website and other future media considerations. Please check the level of confidentiality you wish to have:

MOPS may not release any of my personal information, including data collected while investigating, for any reason.

MOPS may release personal information and data collected, providing that all witness and client names are changed or excluded, and that the location's address is excluded. This allows MOPS to put up pictures and audio from the investigation as long as witnesses and clients are not pictured or listed by their actual name in the audio.

MOPS may release any information listed above at their discretion.
